LEGENDS OF MEDORA

June 8 - 12, 2025

Day 1: Journey Begins to Mandan, ND

Today is a travel day. Your tour director will ensure your journey is entertaining and will point out highlights along the way.

Day 2: Mandan, ND to Medora, ND

Arriving in Center, ND, at BNI Coal Ltd, there is a mining tour where you will see coal being extracted from the pit of a surface mine, a dragline digging, how the reclamation process of the land works, and more. As you go to Medora, you'll stop at a Badlands Overlook for viewing and picture taking. This afternoon, tour the Chateau de Mores State Historic Site, the 26-room home of Antone de Vallombrosa, a successful rancher and businessman who started a new town named Medora after his wife. The day concludes with a visit to the Harold Schafer Heritage Center. Schafer, North Dakota's most famous businessman, and the individual who made Medora the number one tourist destination in North Dakota. The Heritage Center contains interesting memorabilia and facts of Schafer and his family.

Day 3: Medora, ND

You'll enter the Theodore Roosevelt National Park today and stop at the Painted Canyon Visitor Center. Later, at the North Dakota Cowboy Hall of Fame, you can immerse yourself in the exciting story of the plains horse culture and experiences of the Native Americans, homesteaders, ranchers, and more. This evening includes the ever-popular Pitchfork Steak Fondue, where your delicious entree is grilled western-style with pitchforks! After dinner, a Behind the Scenes Theater Tour to see what it takes to produce the Greatest Show in the West! The evening concludes with the Medora Musical Show at the Burning Hills Amphitheater, with a bit of history, a little humor, and a lot of Western spirit.

Day 4: Medora ND to Mandan, ND

Back at the amphitheatre this morning, you'll be inspired by a Gospel Brunch and Show featuring a toe-tapping gospel revue and of course great food! After brunch a step-on guide will join you to tour more of the stunning Teddy Roosevelt National Park in search of bison, elk, and deer as well as the stunning buttes of the Badlands. Stops for viewing and pictures will be made.

Day 5: Mandan, ND to Home

In Fargo, ND explore at your leisure, Bonanzaville, USA. See acres of historic buildings, artifacts, and exhibits devoted to local culture and heritage. You'll arrive home this evening.
